

Registering for Scifinder

In order to access Scifinder all students and faculty must create an individual user account. This creates a password that you will use to access the system. To begin copy and paste the following address:

<https://scifinder.cas.org/registration/index.html?corpKey=AD68ABD1-86F3-5055-2F87-6955759C0CDD>

- All subscriptions must be activated while on the campus network
- Users must use their Alma email address when prompted during account creation
- Once a username and password are created an email will be sent to your Alma account for verification. You must confirm the account within 48 hours.
- You may be asked to reactivate your account occasionally by repeating the setup process.
