

November 8, 2017

Global Citizens

Facilitated by I-Club

“I believe we can speak with one voice.”

- Narendra Modi

This event is co-sponsored by the I-Club and the Diversity and Inclusion Office. This dialogue will explore what it means to be a Global Citizen.

January 10, 2018

Feminism! Is it still relevant?

Facilitated by Dr. Lauren Woolbright

“A feminist is anyone who recognizes the equality and full humanity of women and men.”

- Gloria Steinem

This dialogue will explore the role and of feminism for millennials and Gen Z. The word feminism conjures many images and definitions for different people. This discussion will allow us to gain insight into how and why this word solicits such diverse responses and its relevance in today's world.

February 14, 2018

Communication Styles that Foster Healthy Interpersonal Relationships

Facilitated by Dr. Joanne 'Doc' Gilbert

“The way you communicate reveals everything about you. Words are the clothes your thoughts wear.”

- Amanda Patterson

This dialogue will invited participants to engage in learning how to communicate with others in order to foster healthy relationships that demonstrate respect and appreciation for one another. And Doc will be sure to inject humor in this discussion.

March 14, 2018

Free Speech vs. Hate Speech

Facilitated by Dr. Nick Dixon and Dr. Bill Gordon

“To have a right to do a thing is not at all the same as to be right in doing it.”

- G.K. Chesterton

In our current climate there is an ongoing debate on how to differentiate free speech and hate speech. But as the U.S. Constitution's First Amendment grants free speech there is a movement by some in government to challenge the definition and limits of free speech. This dialogue will allow for participants to take a deep dive into this debate.

April 11, 2018

The Impact of Colonization on Inequities of Global Economics

Facilitated by Dr. Nhan Le

“Colonialism. The enforced spread of the rule of reason. But who is going to spread it among the colonizers?”

— Anthony Burgess

This dialogue will focus on the impact that colonization has had on the economies of the countries that have been colonized by industrial nations.