B. GRANTS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

In the student and/or parent additional financial information section of your 2023-2024 FAFSA, it was reported that you and/or your parent had an amount of “taxable student grant & scholarship aid reported to the IRS in your adjusted gross income”. Only those amounts that were reported as taxable income should be reported on the FAFSA. Please check one of the following:

- The amounts reported on the FAFSA regarding taxable grants and scholarships listed on my/my parent(s) 2021 federal tax return are correct and I/my parent(s) did report grants and scholarships on the federal tax return within the ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME. Please submit the supporting 2021 1098T form(s) and 1040 form (signed and dated).
- I/my parent(s) did not report any grants and scholarships in the adjusted gross income listed on my/their 2021 federal tax returns and we mistakenly reported this amount on the FAFSA. Please submit the supporting 2021 1098T form(s) and 1040 form (signed and dated).

C. SIGN THE WORKSHEET

The College must review the requested information, under the financial aid program rules (CFR title 34, Part 668). If you are the student, by signing this application you certify that you (1) will use federal and/or state student financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education, (2) are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (3) do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (4) will notify your school if you default on a federal student loan and (5) will not receive a Federal Pell Grant for more than one school for the same period of time. If you are the parent or the student, by signing this application you agree, if asked, to provide information that will verify the accuracy of your completed form. This information may include your U.S. or state income tax forms that you filed or are required to file. Also, you certify that you understand that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify the information reported on this application with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies. If you sign any document related to the federal student aid programs electronically using a Personal Identification Number (PIN), you certify that you are the person identified by the PIN and have not disclosed that PIN to anyone else.

WARNING: if you purposely give false or misleading information on the worksheet, you may be fined $20,000, sent to prison, or both.
