

Memberships

Choose the membership that best fits you and your family's needs. We have single, couples, family, alumni and senior memberships — as well as pool-only memberships for those interested in swimming.

Membership Options

Community members and others not currently associated with the college may join the Stone Center for Recreation by purchasing one of the many available membership options. Membership to the Stone Center include use of all of the center's facilities, as well as use of the pool in the Hogan Center.

The cost of a membership varies according to the membership type and duration.
